With over 10 years of experience, Alejandro is a highly regarded lawyer known for his strategic approach and ability to resolve complex disputes in both judicial and arbitral forums. His practice focuses on insolvency proceedings, restructuring, arbitration, commercial and civil litigation, constitutional (amparo) proceedings, and corporate law, with a strong track record representing clients in high-stakes matters.

He has advised national and international companies across highly regulated and strategic sectors such as energy, finance, telecommunications, oil and gas, mining, infrastructure, construction, insurance, technology, banking, capital markets, rail and maritime transportation, and logistics.

He has extensive experience in disputes involving asset recovery, enforcement of guarantees, complex contracts, injunctive relief, contested mergers, corporate and shareholder disputes, trust enforcement, civil liability claims, regulatory compliance, commercial lease conflicts, and debt restructuring.

His approach combines legal expertise, business insight, and risk anticipation, making him a key ally in strategic litigation and critical proceedings.
