With more than 4 years of experience in strategic consulting and litigation in the fields of Foreign Trade and Customs at Basham, Ringe y Correa, S.C., Adolfo has developed a solid track record advising companies on international trade operations.

His expertise encompasses import and export procedures, customs valuation, tariff classification, and compliance with non-tariff regulations.

He has developed comprehensive foreign trade strategies, including incentive programs, and in the litigation arena, has handled customs administrative proceedings, administrative appeals, nullity claims, and constitutional injunction proceedings (amparo).

He is also recognized for his academic work as co-author of critical analyses published in Revista Puntos Finos, where he identified constitutional violations in the 2024 General Foreign Trade Rules (RGCE) and exposed the lack of economic justification in tariff decrees.
