With over 10 years of professional experience, José Antonio has built a career at the firm, starting as an intern. His practice specializes in civil and commercial litigation, alternative dispute resolution mechanisms (mediation and arbitration), and bankruptcy proceedings.

His services focus on providing legal advice and designing legal strategies for national and international companies in construction, transportation, automotive, and insurance, as well as shareholder disputes.

He has extensive experience handling judicial processes related to civil, commercial, and real estate lease disputes and legal actions for contractual and non-contractual civil liability and moral damages, among others.

This is done with a preventive and solution-oriented approach, regardless of the status of the matter, always seeking the best solutions for our clients.
