With over 8 years of professional experience, Julio specializes in civil and commercial litigation, insolvency proceedings, and alternative dispute resolution methods.

He is a results-driven attorney with a strong sense of urgency, who has represented both national and international companies in lawsuits, settlement negotiations, and complex insolvency and restructuring proceedings. His services include the design and implementation of legal strategies focused on protecting clients' interests, regardless of the stage of the dispute.

He oversees various matters before the Federal Judiciary, as well as civil, commercial, family, and administrative courts in Mexico City and other states across the country.

His approach combines detailed analysis, strategic vision, and efficient case management to deliver effective solutions in every matter.
