

LUIS CURIEL

Associate

MEXICO CITY

+52 55 5279 5547

luis.curiel@s-s.mx

EDUCATION

LL.B.
2003, Universidad La Salle, Mexico.

LL.M. in Tax Law
2006, Universidad Panamericana, Mexico.

With more than 25 years of experience in tax law, Luis is a partner in the Tax Practice Group, specializing in tax disputes and advising domestic and international companies in Mexico.

His practice focuses on advising clients on negotiations and defense against tax authorities, including audits, denials of tax refunds and overpayments, appeals for revocation, settlement agreements, and proceedings before the Office of the Taxpayer Advocate (PRODECON). He also represents clients in administrative litigation and constitutional appeals before the Federal Judiciary.

He holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from La Salle University and a Master's degree in Tax Law from the Universidad Panamericana. He was elected First Vice President of ANADE for the 2025–2026 term and will serve as President for 2027–2028. He is also a professor and author of specialized publications on tax matters.

LANGUAGES

+ Spanish
+ English

