de México, México.

LL.M.
1999, Georgetown University Law
Center, EE.UU.

Mariano is an experienced litigator specializing in amparo proceedings, as well as administrative and tax litigation. For over 30 years, he has represented national and international clients in their most significant and high-stakes disputes with the Mexican government. He routinely advises on the resolution of complex conflicts between private capital and the public sector.

Mariano has extensive experience advising clients across a wide range of sectors and industries—including automotive, consumer goods, pharmaceutical, heavy industry, and retail—on tax matters related to their operations in Mexico.

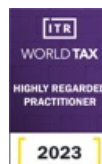

He also assists in resolving disputes involving public procurement, foreign trade, environmental issues, social security, and antitrust matters, among others. He works closely with experts from various practice areas to provide highly technical and comprehensive legal services.
