Abel specializes in advising national and international companies in the areas of real estate, insurance, corporate, and immigration law, as well as in contract negotiation.

In real estate matters, he advises various clients on legal audits, document review for transactions, leasing, and property purchases and sales.

In the insurance sector, he has supported clients with legal audits and document reviews related to transactions, in addition to providing guidance on the incorporation and acquisition of Mexican insurance companies.

In the field of immigration, Abel advises clients on strategic planning for the relocation of expatriate employees of various nationalities, as well as on compliance with applicable immigration laws in Mexico.
