- She is currently the President Commissioner of COFECE.
- She will serve as Commissioner of the CNA Plenary for a period of three years.

Ana María Reséndiz Mora:

- Economist from Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México ("UNAM") and Master of Economics from El Colegio de México ("Colmex") and the Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., where she also pursued doctoral studies.
- She is currently a Commissioner of COFECE.
- She will serve as Commissioner of the CNA Plenary for a period of four years.

Óscar Alejandro Gómez Romero

- Economist from UNAM, and Master of Economics from Colmex.
- Previously, he served as Executive Coordinator at the National Regulatory Improvement Commission and held the position of Director General of Competitiveness and Economic Competition at the Ministry of Economy.

- He will serve as Commissioner of the CNA Plenary for a period of five years.

Ricardo Salgado Perrilliat

- LL.B. from Universidad La Salle and holds specializations in public law and corporate law from Universidad Panamericana. He also holds a master's degree in corporate business law from Universidad Humanitas and is a doctoral candidate in law at Universidad Panamericana.
- Previously, he served as Head of the Legal Affairs Unit of the Federal Court of Administrative Justice and as General Coordinator of Regulatory Improvement at the Federal Telecommunications Institute.
- He will serve as Commissioner of the CNA Plenary for a period of six years.

Haydee Soledad Aragón Martínez

- Sociologist and Master in Social Studies (Labor Studies) from Universidad Autónoma de México ("UAM"), and Doctor of Social Science with a specialization in Sociology from Colmex.
- Previously, she was Co-Director of the project "Combating the Labor Exploitation of Domestic Workers in Mexico" at the American Institute for Research, and Secretary of Labor and Employment Promotion in the Government of Mexico City.
- She will serve as Commissioner of the CNA Plenary for a period of seven years.

These are all highly qualified individuals with extensive experience in different fields. We wish them great success in their new roles.
